Overview

Naples! Sebago Cove Right of Way! Looking for a little get away or that Maine hunting camp? This property offers lots of storage and ample potential. The main building (24x32) was built in 2001 and the inside was finished in 2014 from the ceiling to the floors, new plumbing and electrical that sits on a slab. This home has open concept on first floor, full length bar, pellet stove with half bath. Second floor has its oversized bedroom and full bathroom with stand up shower. The oversized storage building has an attached older mobile home that could be someone's project. Don't miss out on spending your days on the water or walking the Naples causeway having dinner or an ice-cream!
