Overview

This approx. 200 acres of desirable land consists of 176 acres of dryland and 26 acres of native pasture located in the northeastern part of Haskell County. This property offers paved highway frontage off of FM 266, a seasonal creek and an older barn site that would make an ideal RV set up. This is a great find for anyone looking to expand their farming operations or wanting to acquire a recreational property. The seller will convey all owned minerals.
