Overview

Come see this four sided brick ranch in Lithia Springs! This home is unique in that it has two bedrooms combined into a substantial primary suite. This is perfect for empty nesters. The bathroom is also oversized, larger than others for a home of this style. It offers a jetted tub and separate shower. The living area is open and flows well with the kitchen, very easy to entertain. The HVAC is newer and there is a tankless water heater. The backyard is fenced, and also has an almost new wooden shed that is in immaculate shape. The architectural roof has plenty of life left. Plenty of parking and easy, stepless living. Conveniently located less than a mile off the interstate. Go view today!
