Overview

Located in the vibrant heart of downtown Bristol, RI, the five-bay Colonial Federal style residence, built in 1808, is also known as the William Bradford Jr. Home. It boasts a fully renovated Chef's Kitchen and bright spacious Dining room, replete with modern amenities and exquisite design. The residence offers a seamless fusion of historic allure and contemporary comfort. It provides an exclusive vantage point right outside your front door for the 4th of July parade and festivities. Situated on a generous corner lot, it features a private fenced yard with elaborate landscaping and a pond, creating a serene outdoor retreat. The property includes a paved driveway and additional parking in the back of property. The interior hosts a spacious layout with 5 bedrooms and 6 baths, combining beauty, functionality, and efficiency while maintaining its historical charm. Enjoy a short walk to downtown Bristol's eateries, boutiques, and attractions. A nearby bike path invites outdoor activities, and for those drawn to the water, the home is a mere block from the Bristol Harbor shoreline, offering breathtaking views and waterfront access.
