Overview

If being located within walking distance to downtown Oregon is a bonus for you, this is a home to pursue. Just a few blocks from the heart of Oregon, you'll be able to hear the community band concerts from your large front porch or spend the mornings with your drink of choice on the porch reading your favorite book. This home features many updates to make the new owner comfortable for many years. Access to the deck and fenced in yard from the kitchen makes this layout ideal for entertaining and grilling. There is plenty of space for gardening and yard games if that interests you. And to top it off, the newly updated landscaping really makes this home shine.
