Overview

Glorious panoramic mountain views from this 5.26 Acre lot in the beautiful gated community of Tres Valles, located just east of La Veta, CO. This lot borders community land and a community Mallard Pond providing seclusion from neighbors on 3 sides and unobstructed views! Property is very diverse with trees, live water, mountain views and the only lot overlooking the community pond. Build site has been mostly prepared as well as a path to the lovely stream and east side of property has been cleared. This premier lot is a great build site with Architectural Design plans and Survey already for you to build your dream home in the Colorado Mountains. The community water system and power at the road make this an economical place to make your dreams a reality. Call for a showing soon, a must see!
