Overview

Bring your horses to this desirable location on Upper Diamond Ln. Beautiful views of Bear Creek and the lower Walla Valley surround the property. Several functional outbuildings (including a chicken coup) give you plenty of storage and the opportunity to utilize this property in many different ways. There is a newer pole barn with four large Noble horse stalls and a large tack room. Next to the barn is a large riding/roping arena(110'X140' +40' round pen). The property has a year round stream and a seasonal ditch running through it and has water rights for irrigating.. The home has recently been updated on the inside and has brand new paint and a metal roof on the outside. There are several fruit trees and a location for a garden area. Arctic entries on the front and back doors.
