Overview

Welcome to the Stephen Turner House circa 1750. This home is situated on a mature level lot including lawn and gardens with a backdrop of majestic trees and stone walls. The 14 room floor plan offers historic detail at every turn, with fireplaces, fine wood moldings, early hardware and wide pine floors. Newer systems and updates have been architectural integrated with pleasing results, making for modern living which blends in seamlessly. A spacious screened porch overlooks the rear yard and kitchen garden and patio. There is also a detached two bay garage with a workshop area. Come discover this classic and enjoy the ample and quality living space.
