Overview

Welcome to 1649 Ravine Terrace - an unparalleled expression of modern luxury living in East Highland Park. Just completed, this new construction masterpiece spans over 9,000 square feet and redefines opulence set on 1.53 acres offering the best of both worlds: a serene and private cul-de-sac with a stunning ravine backdrop and an expansive backyard for outdoor living and entertaining. This architectural gem boasts 6 bedrooms, 6 full bathrooms, and versatile bonus rooms designed to exceed your every expectation and accommodate today's work-from-home lifestyle. As you step inside, a dramatic two-story entryway flooded with natural light sets the tone for the sophisticated interior featuring vaulted ceilings, arch ceilings and door openings, a two-sided linear gas fireplace with a striking venetian plaster finish separating the family and living room, 8-inch white oak floors throughout, exceptional millwork and intricate trim details throughout and a chef's dream kitchen featuring impeccable custom cabinetry highlighted by double rounded islands with fluted white oak details, quartzite counters and backsplash, a professional-grade 48-inch dual fuel Wolf range complimented by a pot filler, the ultimate in refrigeration with side-by-side Sub-Zero paneled refrigerators and four freezers, two paneled Cove dishwashers, a 30 Wolf speed oven and a striking custom metal hood is a culinary masterpiece. The dual staircases create a seamless flow from the second floor to the basement, enhancing the home's functionality while adding an extra touch of architectural distinction. Entertain effortlessly with dramatic 12-foot sliding doors leading to one of two expansive raised decks overlooking the sprawling picturesque backyard; a canvas ready for your vision, whether it's a pool, hot tub, sports court, playground, fire pit or all the above, opportunity awaits! The second floor features four bedrooms and a bonus room with curved glass windows, prime for an office, playroom or gym with a balcony overlooking your sprawling backyard and ravine. The lower level unveils a haven for leisure featuring an expansive recreation room, a wet bar with a dishwasher, a sunken gym/golf simulator/batting cage and a theater room with elevated stadium seating designed for the ultimate cinematic experience. Located in an A+ highly sought-after pocket of East Highland Park, a few blocks South of downtown, steps to the beach, and around the corner from the train station, this home is not just a residence; it's a lifestyle and one-of-a-kind property that checks all the boxes for the most discerning buyer! Act now and seize the opportunity to call 1649 Ravine Terrace home.
