Overview

WOW! Situated on over 13 acres of gorgeous pastureland, this sweet ranch home is the perfect oasis! Boasting lovely hardwood flooring throughout, and an open concept living plan highlighted by a wood burning stove and hearth this home truly exudes country charm! The kitchen offers white cabinets, an island, plenty of storage and allows for easy entertaining. The Owner's suite offers a relaxing en suite bath with dual vanity. There are two more spacious bedrooms as well as another guest bathroom. A large laundry room offers additional storage options. The 2-car carport is currently being used as a game-day porch, but can easily be converted to a true garage to store your cars or other equipment. The back deck is where you will find yourself enjoying the serenity of your property with an outdoor grilling area, firepit and views for miles! There are a number of sheds and barns on the property making this the perfect place for your hobby farm or business. The barn includes a tack room, storage and stalls for your horses. There are a number of locations on the property where you can pull water from the well for any animals in the pastures. Shade can be found along the tree-line, along with plenty of open, level pastureland, making this property just ripe with possibilities.
