Overview

One of a kind newly built 1 story with walkout basement home that sits on a spacious 1.55 acres with 333 ft of Lake Adger access as well as your own private dock. Walking up to the front door you will be amazed by the peace and tranquility this impeccably gorgeous property has to offer. From the beautifully designed landscaping, down to the amazing stonework and water features, it's obvious that no detail was overlooked. Once you walk into this home, you'll notice your breathe being taken away by the huge open floor plan with all the extras including a gas fireplace, open kitchen floor plan. The floating stairs are made from African Mahogany and the Brazilian Walnut accents continue throughout the home. There is a beautiful stone path that brings you to the built in stairway to the private dock and an area to enjoy the mountain view while sitting outside around the fire pit level of the enormous backyard. This home promises to be the entertainer's (or peace lover's) dream setting.
