Overview

Welcome to The Arches, a truly iconic and elegant estate. This magnificent residence boasts five bedrooms and two and a half bathrooms, offering a generous 3900 square feet of living space on a sprawling 1.46-acre lot with street-to-street access. Circa 1890, this timeless Queen Anne Victorian home has been meticulously maintained over the years, preserving its original integrity while seamlessly integrating modern functionality. The property exudes grandeur, featuring soaring ceilings adorned with intricate moldings, wainscoting, and stunning stained glass windows. The original wood flooring and clear redwood construction further enhance the home's historical charm, creating an atmosphere of unparalleled sophistication. The cornerstone of this estate is the majestic great room, perfect for hosting and entertaining guests. This well-appointed kitchen showcases a timeless design with a white marble slab center island, a built-in display case, a butler's pantry, and a spacious dining area. Three sets of sliding doors open to a large wrap-around deck, seamlessly blending indoor and outdoor living spaces. This historic residence also offers endless potential for customization, inviting you to re-create your dream home. Convenient location, just a stroll to downtown.
