Overview

This three-bedroom, three-bathroom raised ranch home offers privacy in a serene setting on just under 10 acres. One of the standout features of this property is the car enthusiast dream garages! With two large garage options (see description attached), there is ample space to store boats, cars, have a large workshop, or even an RV! The open layout on the main level features high ceilings, a wood-burning fireplace and two sliders leading out on the decks. The lower level features a large versatile room that would make a great family room or entertainment room. Additionally, you will find another beautiful stone fireplace, in the game room, The options are endless with this great tucked-away Berkshires retreat. Call today for your private tour!
