Overview

This beautiful farmhouse is situated in the Tuscan hills in the countryside of Badia a Passignano, a corner of paradise nestled in the heart of the Chianti Classico. It is characterised by a beautiful outdoor swimming pool that is lit up at night and creates a magical atmosphere, a barbecue corner and a large veranda overlooking the garden. Inside the structure there are 8 tastefully furnished double rooms, an indoor hall, an outdoor hall, all very well cared for and in perfect Tuscan style. Badia a Passignano is one of the many jewels in the crown of the province of Florence, which, not only in its historic centre but also in its surroundings, offers noteworthy hamlets that are inextricably linked to the territory, its produce and its most authentic traditions. The ancient village of Badia a Passignano is literally immersed in nature and constantly attracts the curious and visitors, eager to discover the history of this locality and to savour not only its atmosphere but also its flavours: wine is in fact one of the symbols of these parts of Italy, in particular good wine, that which is the fruit of passion, family businesses and care for the environment in which its production takes place. From the centre of Florence Badia a Passignano is about 35 km away and is therefore perfect for an interesting day trip.
