Overview

Own your own slice of North West paradise - 125 ACRES! Alpine Lakes has been an interest of Washington State since 1997, at one time the property had mining permits to move over 3,000,000 tons of high cascade weathered granite. This is a truly remarkable property, the lakes sit at an approximate 3,100 ft level of elevation with a waterfall that fills the lakes. Land is full of lush green trees, great for hiking, hunting & fishing. Owner stocked these lakes for the past 17 years with cutthroat trout, If you're interested in owning the last private Alpine Lake in King County here's your chance! Buyer to verify land use.
