Overview

Oshtemo's West Port Village condominium community. Stately architecture, cul de sac streets, nature surrounding the units, all built by Visser Construction. A stand-alone unit, with two large bedrooms on the main floor, two full baths, a huge living / dining area with the addition of a four-season family room as well. Cherry cabinets, open kitchen design, a pantry, and main floor laundry. The basement has a third bedroom, a third full bath, tall ceilings again, and is fully finished. The garage is oversized, with tall volume ceilings, hot / cold water supply, and natural gas supply for the woodworker. This home is on the southern end of West Port Village and is adjacent to a large natural wooded area with plenty of wildlife. Supported by a generator. Association fee $250 / month.
