Overview

Prominently located on Station Road, the available accommodation comprises the ground floor retail premises of the property known as Feature Stone. The property has previously been occupied as a barber and hairdressing salon and most recently as a pet food shop and has the potential for a variety of alternative retail uses. Internally the ground floor comprises a good sized front retail sales area with store and kitchen and WC facility to the rear. The property has the benefit of electronic shutters at the front of the building providing additional security. For more details and to contact:
